You will be pleased to note that included in the book are articles written by our own Rev. Dr. Marcelle Brathwaite and Rev. Greta St. Hill and they would be very happy for your interest and support. The book is mainly about shared personal experiences of various Ministers as they passed through COVID 19. The articles are written from a variety of perspectives, including recently graduated students at Codrington College, retired priests, and even overseas input. It promises to be an engaging piece of literature relevant to the times we are living in. The tentative launch of the book is September 21, 2022. Please listen out for further details as the date draws closer. Your support in this interesting new venture and the purchase of this timely book will be greatly appreciated.
